

RSA online course delivery - Self-Assessment Checklist

Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) are required to complete a Self Assessment Checklist to have RSA online course delivery designated as an “approved course” in Tasmania.

Approval from the Tasmanian Commissioner for Licensing is necessary for RTOs delivering the national competency SITHFAB009A - Provide responsible service of alcohol online.

An “approved course” means a course of instruction or training in the service of liquor, approved by the Commissioner. For more information please go to:

<http://www.treasury.tas.gov.au/domino/df/df.nsf/v-liq-and-gaming/271243A9977A084ACA257610000B46F7>

The unit SITHFAB009A - Provide responsible service of alcohol applies to all persons involved in the sale and supply of alcohol on licensed premises. Under differing state and territory legislation it is only a required unit for certain nominated personnel operating in licensed premises. Candidates should seek advice from their local liquor licensing authority or training organisation on their requirement to complete this unit.

RTOs delivering RSA training online who wish to be approved as meeting the requirements of the Commissioner for Licensing:

- a) must meet the licensing aspects outlined in the table below, and
- b) are expected to meet the best practice guidelines for online delivery and assessment set out in the table below.

An important aspect of these guidelines is the VET e-learning technical content standards, which can be accessed at:

<http://e-standards.flexiblelearning.net.au/index.htm>

Please note that these guidelines anticipate that participants in online courses may be drawn from any State or Territory in Australia. The licensing aspects cover Tasmania only.

A copy of this document may be supplied to the Tasmanian Qualifications Authority.

This self assessment checklist should be completed in conjunction with the Commissioner for Licensing’s Guidelines for RSA Online accessible on the Department’s website as above.
