

Applying for a Special Employee's or Technician's Licence

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must be 18 years of age or over.

Your application will be assessed by the Tasmanian Liquor and Gaming Commission to determine whether or not you are suitable to be a licence holder. To make this assessment, the Commission may contact various organisations including the following:

- Tasmania Police
- Australian Securities and Investments Commission
- Registrar of Births, Deaths and Marriages
- Gaming Regulatory Authorities
- Credit Agencies
- Financial Institutions

You are required to give authority and consent to the Commission to obtain information (including financial and other confidential information) relevant to your application.

WHY DO I NEED A LICENCE?

Special Employee

If you wish to operate keno and gaming machines you will need a Special Employee's licence to do so. Section 50(1) of the Gaming Control Act 1993 states that "a person must not exercise the functions of a special employee except in accordance with the authority conferred on the person by a licence".

Failure to comply with this section may result in a fine of up to 50 penalty units or a term of imprisonment not exceeding three months or both.

Technician

A technician is a person who installs, services, repairs or maintains gaming equipment in Tasmania or undertakes software / hardware development, testing and analysis.

A person conducting these activities without a licence issued by the Commission may receive a fine not exceeding 250 penalty units or a term of imprisonment for 12 months.

The value of a penalty unit can be located at: - https://www.justice.tas.gov.au/about/legislation/value_of_indexed_units_in_legislation

PROBITY REQUIREMENTS

Special Employee's licence and Technician licence applicants are not required to be fingerprinted unless the Commission determines otherwise.

All new applicants must consent to being fingerprinted, irrespective of whether this takes place. Please do not have your fingerprints taken unless requested by the Commission.

If you think you may be entitled to claim a right of non-disclosure in relation to offences, you should check with the Privacy Commissioner on the Privacy hotline: 1300 363 992 (toll free).

The Commission will destroy your fingerprints when your licence expires or where an application for a licence is refused.

DOCUMENTS WHICH MUST ACCOMPANY YOUR APPLICATION

Two copies of identification from the list below must be included with your application. One of these must be a form of photo identification. All documents must be certified copies. These copies need to be endorsed with the words "Original Sighted" signed (witness name).
