

Extract:

Section 26 RTI Act

Extract:

Section 26 RTI Act

Extract:

Section 26 RTI Act

The current system imposes a $200 limit per patron,

Note: The above excerpts are information released under the Right to Information Act 2009 and are not a complete copy of the original information. This information has been extracted from the original in accordance with s 18(3) of the RTI Act.

Extract:

Section 26 RTI Act

Extract:

Section 26 RTI Act

Transitioning away from coin-based play to ticket-in-ticket-out will require installation of systems to run the tickets including ticket generators and ticket readers on all machines, as well as programming changes to machines.

Section 26 RTI Act

Note: The above excerpts are information released under the Right to Information Act 2009 and are not a complete copy of the original information. This information has been extracted from the original in accordance with s 18(3) of the RTI Act.

Extract:

Section 26 RTI Act

Pubs and hotels with EGMs have a cash out limit of $200 per day via a single EFTPOS transaction for any purpose, per customer.

Section 26 RTI Act

Extract:

Section 26 RTI Act

Note: The above excerpts are information released under the Right to Information Act 2009 and are not a complete copy of the original information. This information has been extracted from the original in accordance with s 18(3) of the RTI Act.