

A. Application requirements

An application must be lodged prior to the commencement of building works to ensure there is appropriate time for consideration of the changes.

Lodging a complete application can reduce the processing time. Incomplete applications that do not meet the below requirements are unable to be processed.

Tick to confirm you have lodged the required documentation for this application.

- Approval to Alter a Licensed Premises (this document with all questions answered)
- A copy of your current liquor licence plan
- A plan of the premises outlining the proposed changes
- A clean unmarked plan of the premises
- Photos of the additional area to be licensed (if applicable)

Next steps:

1. Complete all questions and sections in this form.
2. Lodge the completed application (including all attachments) with the Commissioner for Licensing via email or post.
