RSA course delivery - Self-Assessment Checklist

Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) are required to complete a Self Assessment Checklist to have RSA course delivery (online and face-to-face) designated as an “approved course” in Tasmania.

Approval from the Tasmanian Commissioner for Licensing is necessary for RTOs delivering the national competency SITHFAB002 - Provide responsible service of alcohol online.

An “approved course” means a course of instruction or training in the service of liquor, approved by the Commissioner. For more information please go to:

The unit SITHFAB002 - Provide responsible service of alcohol applies to all persons involved in the sale and supply of alcohol on licensed premises. Under differing state and territory legislation it is only a required unit for certain nominated personnel operating in licensed premises. Candidates should seek advice from their local liquor licensing authority or training organisation on their requirement to complete this unit.

RTOs delivering RSA training who wish to be approved as meeting the requirements of the Commissioner for Licensing:

- a) must meet the licensing aspects outlined in Table 1 below; and
- b) are expected to meet the best practice guidelines for delivery and assessment set out in Table 2 below.

A declaration form is supplied at the end of this document, to confirm information provided in this checklist is true and correct.

A copy of this document may be supplied to the Tasmanian Qualifications Authority.

This self-assessment checklist should be completed in conjunction with the Commissioner for Licensing’s Guidelines for RSA Training (accessible here).

Further details on gaining approval to deliver an RSA course to Tasmanian residents can be found in the RSA RTO Fact Sheet (accessible here).
