SMALL PRODUCER'S PERMIT

A small producer's permit is issued under the Liquor Licensing Act 1990 and allows craft and boutique liquor producers to sell their liquor products at more than one event during the period of the permit.

A permit is granted for 12 months and during that time, should the permit holder wish to sell liquor at a particular event, they must notify the Commissioner (via email to licensing@treasury.tas.gov.au) at least seven days before the event is held, seeking approval for the sale of liquor at that event. Written confirmation from the Commissioner for Licensing is required for each event at which the Small Producer wishes to sell liquor.

REQUIREMENTS OF PERMITS

In considering an application for a permit, the Commissioner must make a decision which, in his or her opinion, is in the best interests of the community. An applicant for a small producer's permit must therefore provide supporting information to assist the Commissioner to determine the application. The Commissioner may seek additional information (e.g. plans, comment from police, council etc) in order to assess the application.

The Liquor Licensing Regulations 2016 prescribe the requirements to be considered a small producer. These requirements relate to the sales volume of liquor, financial involvement in the production and where the fruit is grown.

A small producer's permit may only be issued for such events as farmer's markets, community festivals, food festivals and agricultural shows.

FIT AND PROPER

Under the Act a person must be fit and proper to be qualified to hold a liquor permit or to be an associate of an applicant or permit holder. If an associate is not fit and proper, then the applicant or permit holder is not considered to be qualified to hold a permit.

Matters of interest in a fit and proper assessment

- Any major convictions within a given period.
- A consistent pattern of convictions that suggest a disregard for the law.
- Any convictions against the Act.
- Failing to discharge financial obligations or debts owing to the Crown under the Act.
- Good repute, integrity and character, no history of behaviour that would cause the person to be unsuitable to hold a permit, or be an associate of a permit holder.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

An application for a small producer's permit will not be considered unless the application is accompanied by the prescribed fee.

An application for a small producer's permit should be lodged at least 7 days before the permit is to take effect.

It is the responsibility of a permit applicant to ensure that you have an understanding of the law in relation to this permit application. A "Guide to Tasmanian Liquor Licensing laws for liquor permit holders" provides details of obligations and offences for permit holders and is available on the Liquor and Gaming website (visit www.liquorlicensing.tas.gov.au).

COUNCIL APPROVAL

It is the responsibility of a permit applicant to ensure that any approval/s required from the local council in relation to the conduct of the event is/are obtained.

A liquor permit does not authorize liquor to be sold on premises if the use of those premises for that purpose is otherwise unlawful.
